Postlude

I Timothy 6:15b-16

When we realize how much we have received from Christ, our celebration of the Lord's Supper takes on new meaning. In fact, when we realize the work of Christ in paying for our sins and giving us His righteousness, all of our Worship takes on new meaning. We worship God in all parts of our lives as we live, accomplishing our work to His honor and glory. We also come together as a body to praise and honor the One who has given to us the greatest gift, Salvation by Grace alone through Faith alone in Christ alone.

This week as you prepare to come and worship, as you consider the meaning of the Bread and the Cup that we will eat and drink together next Sunday, remember that in preparing we must repent and turn away from all sin in our lives, because our sins separate us from God and from each other. Christ, on the cross, has paid for these sins. Ask God to show you your sin and what actions you need to do to make things right with fellow believers, and then make them right this week.

If this preparation does not make sense to you, seek out a Pastor or an Elder to talk with and hear again how the God who loves you, calls you to live. Please take time to prepare this week.

Come, let us worship and bow down, let us kneel before the Lord, our God, our Maker. Come, let us worship and bow down, let us kneel before the Lord, our God, our Maker. For He Is our God, and we are the people of His pasture, and the sheep of His hand, 25 Therefore he is able to save completely those who come to God through him, because he always lives to intercede for them. 26 Such a high priest meets our need-- one who is holy, blameless, pure, set apart from sinners, exalted above the heavens.

THE LORD CLEANSSES US FROM SIN

Corporate Confession of Sin

based upon Psalm 51

Have mercy on me, O God, in your faithful love, in your great tenderness wipe away my offences; wash me thoroughly from my guilt, purify me from my sin. For I am well aware of my offences, my sin is constantly in mind. Against you, you alone, I have sinned, I have done what you see to be wrong, that you may show your saving justice when you pass sentence, and your victory may appear when you give judgment, remember, I was born guilty, a sinner from the moment of conception. But you delight in sincerity of heart, and in secret you teach me wisdom.

God, create in me a clean heart, renew within me a resolute spirit, do not thrust me away from your presence, do not take away from me your spirit of holiness. Give me back the joy of your salvation, sustain in me a generous spirit. Lord, open my lips, and my mouth will speak out your praise. Sacrifice gives you no pleasure, burnt offering you do not desire. Sacrifice to God is a broken spirit, a broken, contrite heart you never scorn.
